*What should I do
when somebody else sins?*

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells us that if someone sins against us we should quietly go and talk to them about it. Have you ever seen someone else do something bad? Did you talk to them about it?

I DON'T WANT TO BOTHER YOU, BUT I THINK YOU'RE MAKING A MISTAKE!

WE REALLY WANT YOU TO BE OUR FRIEND, BUT YOU CAN'T KEEP LYING TO US!

When we talk to somebody about something bad they are doing we should do it with love. We aren't trying to make them feel bad; we're trying to help!

CAN YOU PLEASE BE MORE CAREFUL?
YES, MOM.

Has anyone ever told you when you were doing something wrong? Did you find it easy to listen to them? When we try to help people who do bad things, what God wants us to do is be kind to them and help them to turn away from their sins. It's hard to do, but it makes God so happy to see us helping people come back to Him!

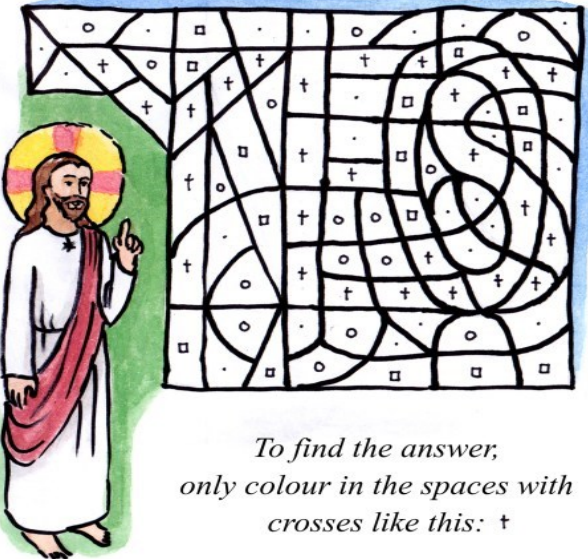

Answer to puzzle on front: yes! Answer to word-find puzzle: Pray with others!

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE FAITHFUL

Saint Peter Church recently filed our Annual Financial Report for the 2025-2026 fiscal year with the Diocese of Sacramento. Using round numbers, our net operating income for this fiscal year was $-13,000. Thankfully, we also received an additional $50,000 in interest income and $23,000 in land lease income. Finally, Saint Peter Church inherited a home here in Dixon, which was sold in August 2025. This resulted in $474,000 being added to our Parochial Fund.
For any questions or concerns regarding the 2025-2026 fiscal year Report or interest in the 2026-2027 Budget, please contact the Parish Office. We truly

PRAYER FOR THE FEAST OF
THE NATIVITY OF
THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

God Our Father,
Give Your chosen people
Your help and strength.
The birth of the Virgin Mary's son was the dawn of our salvation.
May our celebration of her nativity bring us closer to lasting peace and may the virtues that she modeled develop in our lives, to love You and our neighbours more perfectly.
Grant this through Mary's Son,
who is Christ our Lord.

Amen.

ORACIÓN A LA VIRGEN MARÍA
EN SU NATIVIDAD

QUERIDA VIRGEN MARÍA:
Hoy que celebramos tu Nacimiento,
no vengo a pedirte nada, sólo quiero darte mi agradecimiento.

Gracias, porque un día aceptaste
ser la Madre de Jesús,
y me enseñaste a decir sí
a lo que Dios me pida.

Gracias, por aceptar ser Madre mía, estar siempre atenta a lo que necesito para pedirle por mí a tu Hijo, tu ayuda es mi consuelo y alegría.

Gracias, porque me cuidas con ternura maternal, me ayudas
a no portarme mal, y me llevas siempre con amor de la mano, al encuentro del Señor.

¡FELIZ CUMPLEAÑOS, MAMITA MARÍA!

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time	XXIII Domingo Ordinario
GOD’S WATCHERS In the ancient world watchmen were extremely important people. They kept communities safe, and were there to alert them to any impending danger or attack. Before locks, alarms, and security systems, watchmen were the protectors, the safety measure. So when the Lord charges Ezekiel as a watchman today, it is a weighty charge. So weighty, we learn, that if Ezekiel fails to sound the alarm for those around him and they perish in a state of wickedness, Ezekiel will be held responsible! This profound connection between God’s will on earth and in heaven is repeated in today’s Gospel, where Jesus instructs us that we are to be the security force, the watchers placed on alert that nowhere in the Body of Christ, the church, will there be any two members of the one Body who are not reconciled. Scripture tells us that Jesus reconciled all things in heaven and on earth through the blood of his cross. But we are given the mission to continue that reconciliation on earth as in heaven through our ceaseless efforts to be, as Paul would write, ambassadors of reconciliation. Let us not get too comfortable thinking that we are responsible only for keeping our own lives from the path of wickedness and disagreement. We are also held accountable for the lives of the members of Christ’s body around us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc. Washington PATIENCE If you are patient in one moment of anger, you will escape a hundred days of sorrow. —Chinese proverb TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION On Good Friday, at the heart of the Triduum, the commemoration of the Lord’s Passion is colored by sobriety and decorum, but this Thursday the mystery comes in a luminous celebration of Christ’s victory. In its deepest origins, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is the feast of a dedication of a church, since in the year 335 the Church of the Holy Sepulcher was dedicated on September 13, and on the following day the “true cross” discovered by St. Helena was brought outside to the faithful for veneration. It is a great feast of the Eastern <tr><th>TODAY’S READINGS</th><th>LECTURAS DE HOY</th></tr> <tr><td> First Reading — Warn the wicked, trying to turn them from their ways (Ezekiel 33:7-9). Mujeres de Jerusalén Ministry There’s something truly meaningful about the 8th Station in the Way of the Cross. It's a touching moment when the weeping women in Jerusalem encounter Jesus as He makes His way to Calvary on His path to the crucifixion, death, and glory. Jesus stops. This matters because, in the midst of His agonizing journey, He turns to them and redirects their focus. He tells them not to weep for His physical suffering, but to weep for the spiritual reality of the world. The encounter between Jesus and the women of Jerusalem impacted the Ministry Mujeres de Jerusalén in our parish. Jesus stops at them during their Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament; Jesus prays with them. The ministry lovingly prays for others' needs, especially for those who are sick, in prison, migrants, homeless, grieving, the elderly, the unborn, vulnerable adults, the widows, and those who are often overlooked or abandoned, to name a few. Their caring hearts reach out to all who need support and prayers. Remember, even if we can't physically reach out to someone, our prayers are a wonderful way to show we care and are thinking of them. We all know the instruction given by Jesus, who stopped, turned to the women, and told them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.” Luke 23:27-31. The ministry not only considers their needs but also prays for others' needs to God. When we see Jesus on His way to Calvary, it's understandable that our hearts instinctively feel compassion. The women of Jerusalem saw a bloodied, beaten, and innocent man carrying a heavy wooden cross, and they couldn’t help but cry for Him. It was a gesture of true compassion, but what He asks is an inward reflection, to mourn for the sins behind His suffering. Whenever they see their priests walking along the path to Calvary, the ministry, Mujeres de Jerusalén, prays even more earnestly for everyone, sharing in the heavy weight of the Cross. The ministry's mission isn't just about feeling sorrow for Jesus; it’s about letting His sacrifice inspire us to live better, love more deeply, pray for others' needs, follow Him, bring others to Christ, and make a positive impact on our faith in God. Our parish has a wonderful tradition of prayer and intercession ministries. The Mujeres de Jerusalén Ministry was established on July 9, 2026, and the members always show up with devotion whenever the Blessed Sacrament is taken out of the main Church for Adoration, public processions, and retreats. It’s a beautiful demonstration of our community’s faith and support, and our desire to have someone present to keep vigil over the Blessed Sacrament. Furthermore, during Holy Week, they sincerely pray twice as much for the conversion of sinners through their active prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. The members of the ministry often cover themselves with a veil, the mantilla (1 Corinthians 11:2-16). It reminds them to humble themselves, reduce distractions, and focus fully on prayer and God's presence because the veil symbolizes sanctity, modesty, and respect for the Blessed Sacrament. They come to adore barefoot. They visit their priest every other month to receive a blessing and gain guidance on what to pray for. It's a meaningful way for them to stay connected and find comfort in their faith. What a wonderful and noble ministry!   Hay algo verdaderamente significativo en la octava estación del Vía Crucis. Es un momento conmovedor cuando las mujeres de Jerusalén, que lloran, se encuentran con Jesús mientras Él se dirige al Calvario en su camino hacia la crucifixión, la muerte y la gloria. Jesús se detiene. Esto es importante porque, en medio de su angustioso camino, se vuelve hacia ellas y redirige su atención. Les dice que no lloren por su sufrimiento físico, sino por la realidad espiritual del mundo. El encuentro entre Jesús y las mujeres de Jerusalén marcó al ministerio "Mujeres de Jerusalén" de nuestra parroquia. Jesús se detiene junto a ellas durante la Adoración al Santísimo Sacramento; Jesús ora con ellas. El ministerio ora con amor por las necesidades de los demás, especialmente por los enfermos, los encarcelados, los migrantes, las personas sin hogar, los afligidos, los ancianos, los no nacidos, los adultos vulnerables, las viudas y aquellos que a menudo son ignorados o abandonados, por nombrar algunos. Sus corazones compasivos llegan a todos los que necesitan apoyo y oración. Recordemos que, aunque no podamos acercarnos físicamente a alguien, nuestras oraciones son una forma maravillosa de demostrar que nos importa y que pensamos en ellos. Todos conocemos las palabras de Jesús, quien se detuvo, se volvió hacia las mujeres y les dijo: "Hijas de Jerusalén, no lloréis por mí, sino llorad por vosotras mismas y por vuestros hijos" (Lucas 23, 27-31). El ministerio no solo tiene en cuenta sus propias necesidades, sino que también presenta a Dios las necesidades de los demás. Al ver a Jesús camino al Calvario, es comprensible que nuestros corazones sientan compasión instintivamente. Las mujeres de Jerusalén vieron a un hombre inocente, ensangrentado y golpeado, cargando una pesada cruz de madera, y no pudieron evitar llorar por Él. Fue un gesto de verdadera compasión, pero lo que Él pide es una reflexión interior: llorar por los pecados que causaron su sufrimiento. Siempre que ven a sus sacerdotes recorriendo el camino hacia el Calvario, el ministerio "Mujeres de Jerusalén" ora con mayor fervor por todos, compartiendo el pesado peso de la Cruz. La misión del ministerio no consiste solo en sentir dolor por Jesús; Se trata de permitir que Su sacrificio nos inspire a vivir mejor, amar más profundamente, orar por las necesidades de los demás, seguirle, llevar a otros a Cristo y ejercer un impacto positivo en nuestra fe en Dios. Nuestra parroquia cuenta con una maravillosa tradición de ministerios de oración e intercesión. El ministerio «Mujeres de Jerusalén» se fundó el 9 de julio de 2026, y sus miembros siempre acuden con devoción cada vez que el Santísimo Sacramento es sacado del templo principal para la adoración, procesiones públicas o retiros. Es una hermosa muestra de la fe y el apoyo de nuestra comunidad, así como de nuestro deseo de que siempre haya alguien presente velando ante el Santísimo Sacramento. Además, durante la Semana Santa, redoblan sinceramente sus oraciones por la conversión de los pecadores mediante la oración activa, el ayuno y la limosna. Las integrantes del ministerio suelen cubrirse con un velo o mantilla (1 Corintios 11:2-16). Este gesto les recuerda la importancia de la humildad, de reducir las distracciones y de centrarse plenamente en la oración y en la presencia de Dios, ya que el velo simboliza santidad, modestia y respeto hacia el Santísimo Sacramento. Acuden a adorar descalzas. Visitan a su sacerdote cada dos meses para recibir una bendición y orientación sobre las intenciones de oración. Es una forma significativa de mantenerse conectadas y hallar consuelo en su fe. ¡Qué ministerio tan maravilloso y noble!
